Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 10, 12-18, 22-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hart, Jr. et al (US 6,714,835 B1) in view of Schneiderhan (US 5,067,088). Hart discloses a mail production apparatus setup computer program that causes the setup of said apparatus based on properties stored in a memory file from control inserts and sensed machine operating conditions. Such properties include, for example, feeder settings, document weights or postage meter settings. See col. 4, lines 5-15. See also col. 2, line 55-col. 3, line 16.

Hart does not expressly disclose, but Schneiderhan discloses stopping the setup to wait for an operator response. See Schneiderhan figure 14a, elements (504-508). and figure 15, elements (524-526).

At the time of the invention, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have stopped Hart's setup program setup manual operator input, as taught by Schneiderhan.

The suggestion/motivation would have been to provide the mail production process with the flexibility of a semi-automated setup.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to Claims 10, 12-18, 22-35 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. Note that the various physical properties described in Claims 24-28 and 31-35 are considered to be obvious parameters well-known to be used for mail production apparatus operation. For example, the size of sheets to be printed is considered to be a parameter one ordinarily skilled would have logically recognized as being required for mail production operation.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
